

III EDITION - STUDY VISIT TO

Philadelphia

(and weekend in New York City)

"...the best possible exposure you could ever get to the U.S. system of law and justice through observation of jury trials and meetings with key players of the U.S. legal community..."

With the guidance of

David Sonenshein

(Temple Law School, Philadelphia)

and

Stefano Maffei

(University of Parma, Italy)

April 19-29, 2015

Travel Plans

Departure: Sunday, April 19 - morning flight from Italy

- 6 nights in Philadelphia (Sun-Fri)
- 3 nights in New York City (Sat-Mon)

Return: Tuesday, April 28 - night flight from New York City
(arrival in Europe in the morning of April 29)

Morning activities

Morning sessions in civil and criminal courts:

- observation of jury selection;
- opening statements;
- direct & cross examination of witnesses and experts;
- instructions to jurors;
- verdicts.

Afternoon activities

- discussion with state and federal judges;
- visit to FBI headquarters;
- meeting with plaintiff and defendant lawyers in their city law firms;
- visit to US attorney's office (Federal prosecutors);
- tour of National Constitution Center in Old City
- tour of Eastern State Penitentiary

Even more:

- tour of Old city of Philadelphia w. urban geographer
- "do-what-you-want" weekend in New York City
- dinners and night-outs

If interested please respond PHILADELPHIA YES to: cigalla@englishforlaw.it and we shall get back to you with more information on booking and costs

Maximum number of participants: 25

(in case of overbooking preference will go to the Alumni of the Oxford summer programme in International Legal Practice - www.eccle.eu)